

2025 Missouri Bluebird Conference

Jefferson City, Missouri Lincoln University's Carver Farm

SAVE The Date!

July 11th-13th

Featuring:

▪ Missouri Bird Records Committee Chair: Pete Monacell to update us on Missouri's Rare and Uncommon bird sightings!

PLUS... Pete is also going to lead us on a Bird Walk at Mockingbird Hill – home to more than one “rare and uncommon” bird sighting.

- Bluebird Basics by Jack Corrigan, MOBS Nest Box Grant Program Ambassador
- “Advanced Bluebirding” with an in depth probe into Predator Control and feeding Bluebirds by Steve Garr, MOBS President
- A look at Missouri's Natural Areas by MDC Natural Areas Coordinator, Michael Leahy.
- A Panel discussion on “Reclaiming abandoned Nest Box Trails” by a group of Bluebirders who have done just that! Hear from representatives of successfully reclaimed Bluebird Trails from East, West, and Mid-Missouri. They are ready to answer your questions!
